Results from 2023 Board Elections

The Badger Region Board of Directors election wrapped up May 10.

Winning elections for two At-Large seats open on the board were Jon Ellmann and Jason Wheelock. Ellmann is a club director at Spiketown VBC and head women's volleyball coach at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. Wheelock is a director at Fox Valley Performance Volleyball Club and an integral part of the Waupaca Boatride outdoor volleyball tournament.

Mike Stevens, club director at Southport VBC was third in voting for an At-Large seat. He will remain the Junior Boys Rep, a non-voting position, on the Board of Directors.

Retaining his Metro Milwaukee seat for the next three years will be Curtis Madson, the head men's volleyball coach at Concordia University Wisconsin. Madson is also a coach for the Badger Region Boys HP All-Star program.

Stepping away from the Board of Directors were Kim Wudi (head women's coach at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire), who served as northwest rep and secretary during her 11 years on the board; and Muskego High School girls volleyball coach Susan Peterson, who was an At-Large rep for the better part of two terms.

Board members will begin their terms in June with the first board meeting taking place at 4 p.m. Aug. 7.

Region crowns adult champs

The Badger Region Adult Championships were held May 6 at the New Berlin SportsPlex.

Winning the men's division was Team Core. While the women's division was won by 'Ope.

Both teams, along with others from Wisconsin, will compete over the Memorial Day weekend at the USA Volleyball Open Championships in Dallas, Texas.

Recruiting tips focus of June 6 Lunch & Learn

Set aside your lunch hour on June 6 at 11:30 a.m. to learn some of the important things you need to know about recruiting as we head into summer.

The Badger Region will host its monthly Lunch & Learn on Facebook Live to talk about things that should be included with a recruiting video, how to reach out to coaches and what to say, and what you need to know about the recruiting timeline.

Associates from Hudl will also be part of the discussion thanks to the new partnership with the video analysis company and the Badger Region. Send your questions in advance to membership@badgervolleyball.org.

Badger Region, Hudl announce partnership

Hudl has been named the official video analysis, video exchange and auto-capture solution for Badger Region Volleyball Association.

Through this partnership, Hudl will work with the Region to showcase the value of data and video analysis to regional volleyball associations nationwide and engage with athletes, coaches and families at BRVA showcases and events.

"We're excited to partner with Badger Region to deliver tools that will benefit the league by empowering clubs and their athletes, and creating opportunities for the volleyball community," said Rachel Krasnow, Head of Strategic Partnerships at Hudl. "This partnership provides a natural alignment between our two organizations, and creates significant value for athletes by providing them the tools to succeed."

"The new partnership between Badger Region and Hudl will be a great benefit for our clubs and families," said Badger Region Executive Director and Commissioner, Jennifer Armson-Dyer. "Hudl is a well-respected company and provides many services for recruiting, video breakdowns and performance feedback that will enhance what our clubs can offer, regardless of their size. The tools that Hudl offers also empowers families and athletes to take charge of their recruiting journey, and provides opportunities to share videos with friends and family around the world. We could not be more excited to kick off this partnership with an organization that values communication and education as much as we do."

Hudl is proud to partner with BRVA in their vision to provide advocacy, support, recognition and administration to the volleyball community, which aligns with Hudl's mission to build the future of sports with the world's most extensive library of video and data, helping to get the most out of every moment. Hudl's industry-leading video and data technology will help BRVA athletes maximize their moments on the court.

PAVO promotes growth, development of collegiate officials

By Jim Arts
WBVO President

Are you an experienced volleyball official looking for opportunities to grow and develop your skills? Think you have what it takes to officiate collegiate volleyball matches? If so, the Professional Association of Volleyball Officials (PAVO) and the Wisconsin Board of Volleyball Officials (WBVO) is the perfect organization for you!

The Professional Association of Volleyball Officials (PAVO) is a national organization that represents the interests of volleyball officials in the United States, mainly on the collegiate level. PAVO works to promote the growth and development of volleyball officials by providing education, certification, and advocacy. PAVO also partners with other volleyball organizations to promote the sport at all levels.

The Wisconsin Board of Volleyball Officials (WBVO) is a member organization of PAVO that is dedicated to promoting the growth and development of collegiate volleyball referees, line judges and scorers in and around the state of Wisconsin. The mission of WBVO is to provide educational opportunities and foster an environment of professional growth and development for its members. As a member of WBVO, you will have access to a range of benefits, including access to local training and educational resources, networking opportunities with experienced officials and mentors, and the opportunity to officiate games at various levels, including Division I, II, and III college volleyball games.

Additionally, WBVO provides a supportive community for members to connect and share experiences, making it a valuable resource for anyone interested in advancing their career in volleyball officiating in Wisconsin.

Some of the specific benefits of being a member of the WBVO include:

1. Professional Development: Our association provides exclusive training opportunities, workshops, and seminars to help members stay up-to-date with the latest rules and regulations in the collegiate volleyball industry.

2. Networking: As a member of the WBVO, you will have the opportunity to connect with other experienced collegiate volleyball officials and mentors in the field. This can help you build relationships, gain valuable insights, and advance your career.

3. Leadership Opportunities: Members of the WBVO have the opportunity to participate in committees and leadership roles within the organization. This can help you expand your skillset and enhance your professional profile.

4. Officiating Access: Our members have the opportunity to officiate games at various levels, including Division I, II, and III college volleyball games. This can provide valuable experience and exposure in the industry.

5. Community Support: Our association provides a supportive community for members to connect and share experiences. We believe in fostering a supportive environment that encourages growth and development.

To learn more about the Professional Association of the Wisconsin Board of Volleyball Officials and to become a member, visit www.WBVO.org and/or PAVO.org. Registration for the 2023/24 season starts on June 1, 2023.

Family runs deep for this MKE area club

Being part of a volleyball club often feels like being part of a family. But for one Milwaukee-area Badger Region club, family runs a little deeper.

Spike Milwaukee was formed in 2008 by the current Club Owner/Director Jeff Liker. Jeff coached boys volleyball at Wauwatosa West High School and recalls his frustration as the high school season waned there was a lack of opportunity for many of his athletes to play the winter club season. While girls volleyball had started its trajectory that has today made it the most popular girl's high school sport in Wisconsin, boy's club teams were still lacking.

Jeff started his club, originally named Trojan Volleyball, following the team moniker at Tosa West, with the intent to provide more opportunities to play, and in the early years it was primarily his Tosa West players who joined him. In the club's second year, Jeff made his first hire, a coach named Jerry Lahmann. Jerry was very well known in the Milwaukee area, and was the coach at Waukesha North High School when Jeff played against his team. Years later, not only is Jerry still a lead coach at Spike Milwaukee, but so is his wife, Pam. And their son. And their daughter.

Volleyball brought Jerry and Pam together, so it is no surprise their children are active in the sport, too. In fact Spike Milwaukee provided Jerry the opportunity to coach his son, Mitch.

Jerry is affectionately known as "The Godfather" by his fellow Spike coaches, and with good reason, he first started playing volleyball in the late 60s and the game has been central to his life since. Consider that many of the parents of the boys he coaches today were not yet born in the 1960s.

Does too much family ever cause a problem? "No, not at all," explains Pam. In fact when several SpikeMKE teams play at the same tournament, you can often find the coaches whose teams are on break collecting on the bench of a playing team. There is a real camaraderie, and the boys really get to know the coaches they will play for in future years. "It all works out really well" she states.

Today the club has six teams and 10 total coaches. Of those 10 coaches, four share the name Lahmann, and three more have a child in the program.

Jeff feels that tight family ties have made it much easier to keep the club focused on his original goals; teamwork, camaraderie and friendship, building positive experiences, and growing athletes who will become valuable to their varsity teams. If you ask about family, you don't hear abstract thoughts about the feeling of family. Instead you quickly find yourself in a complicated spider web of players, coaches, parents, all family relationships networked together over the course of years, with SpikeMKE at the center.

Is the club interested in growth? "Only a little", states Jeff. If you speak with him, you cannot help but hear that the original principles around which he built the club remain his top, unwavering focus. Every year, he is rewarded by the comments and participation of the families of the young men who join a SpikeMKE team.

Some growth is certain though. Should there be a next generation of Lahmanns, they will have a volleyball home at SpikeMKE.

Free beach clinics June 14-15

Space will be limited for an opportunity to work with professional beach volleyball player Tomas Goldsmith at one of two Badger Region clinics June 14 & 15.

The Badger Region will host a pair of free clinics at Bradford Beach in Milwaukee this summer to help promote the beach volleyball scene and give young athletes the chance to train with Goldsmith, who has played on the AVP tour and runs Volley-Life. He is also a member of the Milwaukee Dive men's semi-professional indoor team and a former member of the Badger Region PVL team.

The clinics will take place from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on June 14 and 15 and is limited to the first 30 athletes of each gender to sign up.

The June 14 event is for boys of all ages. The June 15 event is for girls of all ages.

To register for the event, click here.

Participants in the free clinic will be entered to win apparel or free entry to the 2023 Badger Region Beach Championships that will take place July 29-30 at Bradford Beach.

A Badger Region / USA Volleyball membership is required for participation in the summer clinics. The Region will accept one-event memberships or summer membership that are available on the "membership" tab at www.badgervolleyball.org.

Have questions? Contact program director Brian Sharkey at brian@badgervolleyball.org or call the office at 262-349-9785.

Tourney entry date moved up to Nov. 19

Black Friday can again be reserved for shopping, sleeping in or spending time with family. The Badger Region has moved its tournament entry for one-day events to 6 p.m. Sunday Nov. 19.

This has come at the request of club directors who said the previous dates conflicted too much with other activities on their professional and personal calendars.

AES will open at 6 p.m. the Sunday before Thanksgiving moving forward to allow club directors to enter their teams in one-day Badger Region tournaments. Oct. 1 remains the date to enter two-day or three-day events in the Badger Region.

The date to be accepted into tournaments (meaning fees have been received) in Monday, Nov. 27.

Memberships available for summer activities

Know somebody who needs a summer membership to participate in a Badger Region-sanctioned youth clinic, beach tournament or summer camp?

Discounted summer memberships valid through Aug. 31, 2023, and are now on sale and can be accessed under the membership tab at www.badgervolleyball.org.

Have questions about your membership? Contact the Badger Region office at membership@badgervolleyball.org or call the office at 262-349-9785.

Nominations being sought for those 'Caught Doing Good'

The Badger Region is looking forward to opportunities to feature athletes, coaches, officials and fans in the pages of our newsletter and on our website and social media.

Here's where you can come in. You can also nominate someone for our Caught Doing Good program.

This is for those fans, coaches, officials, players, etc. who go above and beyond.

They are the ones who stay after practice and clean the gym. They are the ones who put in the extra half hour to help after practice if someone needs added training. They are the ones you go to get stuff done.

Let's recognize the folks who are doing things the right way and setting a great example for athletes at all events. And let's encourage one another to pay it forward and discourage poor sportsmanship or behavior on the court or off.

To fill out a CDG nomination and see previous winners, click here: <https://badgervolleyball.org/caught-doing-good/>.

All winners and the folks who nominated them will get Badger Region apparel and other swag.

The deadline for nominations will be May 31, 2023.

Questions? Email brian@badgervolleyball.org.

Tryout dates confirmed for '23-'24

It's only May, but the time has come to start talking tryouts for the 2023-24 season. Here are a list of dates all parents, athletes and club directors should know.

Get your jersey questions answered

The Badger Region Volleyball Association wants to make sure your team's jerseys are compliant with all rule sets and changes that have gone into effect.

To do so, the Region's Ref Chair is encouraging club directors or coaches to send images if there is any concern that numbers are not contrasting enough with the dominant color of the jersey or if a jersey is not contrasting for libero purposes.

The photos of the jerseys should not be of any junior athlete in uniform.

Reminder: All numbers must clearly contrast with the color of the jersey, regardless of the color of the outline of the number.

If your team plans to attend a USA Volleyball Boys or Girls Qualifier or National Championship, the Region can also help direct you as to the proper channels you must go through to get jersey waivers.

How is the Badger Region Board structured?

The Badger Region Volleyball Association is governed by a Board of Directors that must be elected by members on a regular basis. Area reps serve three-year terms, while members of the executive board serve four-year terms.

Members, whether they are players, coaches, parents, directors, athletic trainers or officials, are encouraged to communicate with their respective representative if they think policies or financial decision in the Region need to be changed.

Some policies enforced by Badger Region come from USA Volleyball, our sport's national governing body, so those can't be changed. But many others can.

The Board is advised by a 11 chairpersons (or experts) in various parts of the game, and five staff members (some of which have multiple responsibilities).

The state is divided into five parts geographically for representation. Plus, there are two at-large board members who you can approach if you don't feel comfortable with your current rep. And there is a rep dedicated just to issues that surround our Junior volleyball clubs and athletes.

You'll be hearing from each Board member twice a year in the form of a column in the Badger Beacon. Now, let's meet them:

NO TOMMOROW

There's always tomorrow for me to do my best
Right now I'm kinda tired so I'm going home to rest

Tomorrow I'll be better Coach, I know that for a fact
I'll make up for the effort that today you think I lacked

It's only just one practice, one game or just one race
I'll give you more tomorrow Coach, so just get off my case

There's still a lot of season left and time for me to shine
Awards to win and accolades I plan on making mine

Just not right now, I'm kinda tired; not feeling it today
Who's it really gonna hurt if I leave instead of stay?

But what if your tomorrows suddenly end tonight?
Will you regret your choices or will you be alright?

Will you have given all you've got and gone the extra mile to make your parents proud of you and make your own heart smile?

Or will you live with doubt, regret, and maybe even sorrow wishing that you lived today like there's no more tomorrow?

STAT

According to the National Association of Sports Officials (NASO), registration of officials across the country was down about 30 percent in 2021-22.
